Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for agreeing to address our Advanced Intelligence Seminar. Your session is scheduled for Thursday, November 21, 1985, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. Your presentation is titled "Middle East Tensions: Review and Prospects." Please plan to speak for 30 to 50 minutes, take a break, and then lead a discussion of the issues with Seminar participants.

Participants in this two and one-half week Advanced Intelligence Seminar consists of 16 - 20 senior intelligence officers selected from each of the major components within the Agency. They represent a broad range of educational backgrounds and professional experience. The Seminar is designed to expose officers to alternative viewpoints and perspectives on intelligence and its role in a democratic society. The following are some of the issues we hope you will address during your presentation:

- a. Give an overview of the different factions/roots of discord/prospects for future peace of this area.
- b. Describe the different scenarios that might realistically impact upon Arab/USSR/US/Israeli interests in the area.
- c. What are some alternative foreign policy paths for the U.S.?
- d. What are the implications for the Intelligence Community of divergent policy strategies?

Our group will meet with you at 12:30 p.m. on November 21, 1985, in Room 6210 at the State Department, entering the building through the Diplomatic Entrance.
